DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-22, and 37-47, drawn to user profile, classified in class 707, subclass 6.
- II. Claims 23-36, drawn to identifying communication usage, classified in class 707, subclass 103Y.

Inventions I – II, are related as combinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The combinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, the combination (I) as claimed does not require combination II as claimed, because user profile verification system that verifies the user identity by relating first and second type of data that does not require the combination of identifying the communication characteristic and frequency. The combinations II has separate utility such as identifying the communication characteristic and frequency. Therefore, the inventions are distinct; however, they could be usable together.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 2171

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for one group is not required for the other groups, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to Driscoll Benjamin June 22, 2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
